

Principal/Counselor,

First, I would like to introduce myself. I am Willie Rogers, Oratorical Chairman, Department of Alabama American Legion. We are pleased to announce the 2022-2023 Alabama State High School American Legion Oratorical Contest. The Oratorical Contest presents our nation's high school participants with an academic speaking challenge that teaches important leadership qualities, the history of our nation's laws, the ability to think and speak clearly, and an understanding of the duties, responsibilities, rights, and privileges of American citizenship.

Not only do we provide them the academic challenge, but young orators earn some of the most generous college scholarships available to high school students. Over $138,000 in scholarships are awarded each year. The national contest held in Indianapolis, IN, awards scholarships of $25,000, $22,000, and $20,000 to the first, second, and third place finishers. Whereas the Department of Alabama awards $2,500, $1,500, and $1,000 respectively. The 2022 National Oratorical winner was Ms. Emma Noble, from Birmingham, Alabama, who was awarded a total of $29,500 in scholarships.

I have included a pamphlet explaining the scholarship program and how your outstanding students can compete for local as well as national scholarships offered by the American Legion. The American Legion National website will provide more details of the program: <http://www.legion.org/oratorical/about>

For more information concerning the participation of any of your outstanding students please contact your nearest American Legion Post as soon as possible. You may also contact me directly at 334-467-5039.

Thanking you in advance.

Sincerely,

Willie J. Rogers

A scholarship OPPORTUNITY

For students seeking an academic challenge and an opportunity to earn college scholarship money, the American Legion High School Oratorical Scholarship Program is a natural fit. For more than 80 years, this constitutional speech contest has educated youth on our nation's founding document, with an emphasis on citizenship.

"Who we vote for matters. The leaders we elect should reflect the spirit of our society. Their main goal should be the preservation of our rights as written in our founding document. Failure to vote, then, is the equivalent of rejecting the freedoms bestowed on each individual by our Constitution. These freedoms, like a family heirloom, should be treasured and held dear."

Geeta Minocha, Ocala, Fla.
2015 American Legion National Oratorical Contest champion

The main purpose of the American Legion High School Oratorical Scholarship Program is to develop a deeper knowledge and appreciation of the U.S. Constitution among students. Participants also grow in leadership ability, their capacity to think and speak clearly and intelligently, and understanding of the rights, responsibilities, obligations and privileges of U.S. citizens.

Learn more about the American Legion High School Oratorical Scholarship Program at legion.org/oratorical.

For dates, sites and deadline information concerning local, district and state competition, contact your local American Legion post or state headquarters office.

For information concerning the national contest, contact The American Legion's Americanism Division at (317) 630-1204 or americanism@legion.org.

THE AMERICAN LEGION

P.O. Box 1055
Indianapolis, IN 46206
(317) 630-1204

legion.org

Follow The American Legion online:

legion.org/facebook

twitter.com/AmericanLegion

THE AMERICAN LEGION

HIGH SCHOOL ORATORICAL SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

A Constitutional Speech Contest

THE AMERICAN LEGION | HIGH SCHOOL ORATORICAL SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Winners receive thousands in scholarships

The three finalists of the national contest earn some of the most generous scholarships college scholarships available to students: $25,000 for first place, $22,500 for second place and $20,000 for third place. Each department (state) winner who is certified and participates in the first round of the national contest receives a $2,000 scholarship. Each first-round winner who advances to and participates in the second round, but does not advance to the final round, will receive an additional $2,000 scholarship to pursue education beyond high school.

Scholarships awarded by the national organization of The American Legion may be used to attend any U.S. college or university.

Each department (state) is represented

Each department of The American Legion may certify one contestant for the national contest. If for any reason the department winner is unable to compete in the national contest, the department first runner-up may be substituted following approval by The American Legion's Americanism Commission.

For information about the oratorical contest in your state, contact your local American Legion post or state headquarters. A listing of state headquarters' addresses and phone numbers is online at legion.org.

Who is eligible to participate?

Eligible participants shall be citizens of or lawful permanent residents of the United States.

All contestants must be younger than 20 years on the date of the national contest and enrolled in a high school or junior high school (public, parochial, military, private or state accredited homeschool) in which the curriculum is considered to be high-school level, commencing with grade 9 and terminating with grade 12. Students must be enrolled in high school or junior high school during the time of participation at any level of the American Legion National High School Oratorical Contest.

High-school students who graduate early are eligible to compete if they are not enrolled in a college, university, trade school or other institution of higher learning at the time of the department finals contest.

Contestants must be legally domiciled within or attend an educational institution within the department (state) where they enter competition. Contestants can enter competition in only one department. The three finalists of the national contest will be ineligible for further participation at any level.

The orations

The prepared oration – The subject used for the prepared oration must be on some aspect of the U.S. Constitution, with an emphasis on a citizen's duties and obligations. The same subject and oration used in the department contest must be used in the national contest.

The prepared oration must be the original effort of each contestant and be delivered in no fewer than eight minutes and no more than 10 minutes. It must be delivered in the English language.

Assigned topic – The purpose of the assigned topic oration is to test the speaker's knowledge of the subject, the extent of his or her research, and the ability to discuss the topic as it relates to the basic principles of government under the Constitution. Generally, the topic is a constitutional amendment; it could be the entire amendment or specific articles. The assigned topic oration must be between three and five minutes. Each year, the list of assigned topics is made available prior to the contest and posted online at legion.org/oratorical/topics.

Contest judges

Fair and unbiased judging is integral for maintaining quality and integrity throughout all stages of the contest. The qualifications of all contest judges are carefully considered, and all judges have a thorough understanding of their roles.